Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

On every fourth weekend of Easter, known as the Good Shepherd Sunday and the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, we implore the Risen Christ to transform each of us into a good shepherd, after his own heart. Being a Christ-like good shepherd – “knowing” who/what entrusted to our care, nurturing, leading, protecting, etc. – is our baptized vocation or calling, as a priest or parent or teacher or bus driver or police officer, etc. Each calling is unique and mutually complimentary to the others. Our vocation, first and foremost, is to seek the face of God and to serve as Jesus Christ has done, that is, to live our particular calling with fidelity and generosity. Each vocation is personal, yet never self-serving. Rather, it’s always meant to serve common good. What a sacred gift and challenge ... a life worth living!

A lady recently said: “I pray for our Church daily, especially in this age of vocation crisis!” I appreciate and understood her well-intention. Yet, strictly speaking, baptized vocations are not in crisis, since the Holy Spirit has already gifted/entrusted to each of us a vocation. We don’t pray for more vocations. Rather we are praying to be attentively aware of our unique, sacred callings.

On this day, we pray, in particular, for the vocations of ordained priesthood and religious life. And, those of us who are being called to this beautiful way of life will generously, courageously respond to God’s call. With that, I offer you a prayer by St. Ignatius of Loyola:

Dear Jesus, teach me to be generous; to love and serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labor and to look for no reward, except that of knowing that I do your holy will. Amen

This week we begin the Archdiocese’s Annual Catholic Appeal, in supporting over 60 ministries and services throughout our local church. Please see additional information on this bulletin.

The second Sunday of May, Mother’s Day, is fast approaching. On that weekend, May 11-12, we will honor our mothers, both living and deceased, at all our Masses. We suggest a way to honor her – “Spiritual Bouquet for Mom.” Envelopes are available in the front vestibule for Mass Intentions. They can also be used for financial donation to give flowers to all mothers at weekend Masses.

May the Risen Christ continue to fill you and your extended family with his divine love!
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

50th World Day of Prayer for Vocations

April 21, 2013

The Vatican has set the 50th World Day of Prayer for Vocations on April 21, the 4th Sunday of Easter, commonly known as Good Shepherd Sunday. The theme for this year's celebration is "Vocation as a sign of hope founded in faith." Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life, or secular institutes.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
