The First Letter from our New Pastor...

Dear parishioners and friends of Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Warm greetings to all of you in the spirit of St. Alphonsus Liguori, whose feast day we will celebrate tomorrow (August 1). As the beloved founder of the Redemptorists, St. Alphonsus has taught us of God's immense love, as evidenced through Jesus Christ's self-giving life and works, particularly His compassion toward sinners and those socially marginalized. In today's Gospel, Matthew tells us that when Jesus "saw the vast crowd, His heart was moved with pity for them." He then cured their illnesses and instructed His disciples to feed them. Friends, such is our God, the God of mercy and kindness. From God's deep well of love, each and all of us are thus called to respond with gratitude, through our humble services to those around us.

As you know, the Redemptorists (Denver Province) has recently called Fr. Mark Scheffler and me to serve among you. As for me, being your pastor will be a learning curve, because my previous history of and connection with Sacred Heart parish and Metropolitan Seattle is admittedly limited. Although I've heard wonderful things about Sacred Heart, I will have a lot more to learn from each of you – your personal story and interests, your family life, and your ways of living your Catholic faith. I intend to immerse myself in the local culture of this Archdiocese as well as the Metropolitan Seattle area, to better appreciate and serve you. I am also looking forward to share with you my personal stories and vision of what it means to live Christ's Gospel in 2011 and beyond. I am quite confident that our days and years ahead will be richly blessed by God.

Most important of all, I want to thank my Redemptorist confreres at Sacred Heart of Jesus, particularly Fr. Harry Grile (your former pastor & our current provincial), Fr. Joe T. Ngo, and Fr. Bill Cleary. Plain words cannot fully describe how grateful I am for their Christ-like, generous services to you and your family. I am indeed blessed to stand upon their broad shoulders, and those of many other Redemptorists before me.

God's gift of peace & joy be with you!

Fr. Binh T. Ta, C.Ss.R.
