MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic community dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, ministered by the Redemptorists in the Archdiocese of Seattle.

We are a welcoming community of baptized disciples. Through our Liturgy, Sacraments, Faith Formation, and Pastoral Care, we dedicate ourselves to being:

- a Sacramental Community united in God's love*
- a Community of Faith which shares in the teaching mission of Christ*
- a Community of Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure serving people most in need*
- a Community called to witness and proclaim the Good News through the power of the Holy Spirit*

With the grace of God, the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the maternal protection of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, we devote ourselves to living this mission.

June 19, 2011

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish,

Today is the Father's Day in the United States. I would like to wish a very happy Father's Day to all fathers. Today we pray for all fathers that they may be more faithful to their duties in the family. May God grant them abundant blessings on this special day and every day of their lives.

After 5 weeks of campaign for the Annual Catholic Appeal, we are still on the way to achieve our goal of $44,252. As of June 12, we received pledges of $36,205. We still need $8,047 to reach our goal. Total participation is 31% (138 envelopes returned out of 440 families). I invite you to pray for the success of this campaign and to please help the parish achieve our goal.

This Sunday is the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. Next Sunday is the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Let me quote some words for these solemnities from the Sourcebook of 2011.

"After the glories of the Easter season, the Church leads us back into Ordinary Time by gentle degrees. Before our Sundays return to green, we celebrate two wonderful solemnities: the Most Holy Trinity and the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

The timing of these solemnities is significant. At Pentecost, the Holy Spirit came in transforming power upon the disciples, and the life of faith that we know, began: the life in which Jesus, though no longer visible to our eyes, is nevertheless present among us in wonderful ways through the indwelling Holy Spirit. Today's solemnity, with that of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ next Sunday, offers a kind of liturgical mystagogy, as we seek to understand the ways God is with us in this post-Resurrection world.

Today's solemnity is an ancient one, dating to the seventh century; it has been on the Church's universal calendar for nearly seven hundred years. It would be impossible to overstate the significance of the mystery we celebrate today: "The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life," the Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us. "It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them" (CCC, 234). The history of salvation is the history of how God gradually reveals himself to humanity as the one true God, unity in Trinity. Today the liturgy holds this mystery before us, not explaining or defining, but simply showing us some of the facets of the mystery through the readings and prayers."

Have a blessed and peaceful week,

Fr. Joe Thong Ngo, C.Ss.R.

Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist June 24

When the time arrived for Elizabeth to have her child she gave birth to a son. Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy toward her, and they rejoiced with her.

When they came on the eighth day to circumcise the child, they were going to call him Zechariah after his father, but his mother said in reply, "No. He will be called John." But they answered her, "There is no one among your relatives who has this name."

So they made signs, asking his father what he wished him to be called. He asked for a tablet and wrote, "John is his name," and all were amazed.

Immediately his mouth was opened, his tongue freed, and he spoke blessing God.

Luke 1: 57-64

As a father has compassion on his children,
 so the Lord has compassion on those who fear Him

Psalm 103:13

Please remember Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in your will.
