Dear Parishioners,

The Parish office has received back some rice bowls and envelopes for Catholic Relief Service (CRS). Most of us are familiar with the rice bowl program which is sponsored every year by CRS during the Lenten season. Today, more than 14,000 parishes, faith communities, and schools across the United States participate in Operation Rice Bowl as a way to respect human dignity and foster solidarity with our poor brothers and sisters around the world. Our Parish began this program from Ash Wednesday and will conclude it on Holy Thursday (March 21). Many parishioners have brought home the cardboard box that fold into a small bowl. The premise is to fast by eating a simple meal or skipping a snack or coffee break during the day and placing the money saved into the rice bowl. The money from the rice bowl will fund development projects to help the poor people in Haiti, Indonesia, Senegal, Honduras, Kenya, and elsewhere. If you do not have the rice bowl, you can use a plastic bag to put your money in. It is never too late to do meaningful things for our poor brothers and sisters. No matter how much you save and share, it will greatly impact our brothers' and sisters' lives. Rice bowls will be collected from the week-end of Palm Sunday (April 16-17) and throughout the Holy Week in our parish.

This weekend, you will not see Fr. Bill Cleary around because he will be in Vancouver, WA with his family to celebrate his 75th birthday and his niece's 25th Wedding Anniversary. We wish him a belated happy birthday and a good time with his family.

Fr. Konen and Fr. Maiser will celebrate the Eucharist with us this Sunday. Even though they are so busy helping out at different parishes, they can still spare time with our parish. We would like to thank Fr. Konen and Fr. Maiser and all Redemptorists in-residence for your great love and service to Sacred Heart Parish and God's people in the Archdiocese of Seattle. We keep you in our prayers and wish you good health.

Have a blessed weekend,

Fr. Joe Thong Ngo, CSsR

P.S. I would like to share with you a short paragraph written by Bridget Meehan, SSC in the Journey of Faith for the RCIA program.

Letting Go

If you see life and people as being on loan to you, you can see all as gifts. It is not good to cling tightly to relationships or to hoard earthly treasures. Revere all that you have with deep gratitude, and hold everything in open hands. Reflect on the symbol of open hands.

During your prayer time, open your hands and surrender all the important treasures and relationships of your life to God. Do you experience any obstacles in letting go and giving everyone and everything to God? Be aware of your feelings. Are you joyful? Anxious? Sad? Afraid? Say these feelings with God. Spend time expressing your gratitude to God for each gift and relationship. What does the perspective of "all is on loan" say to you in your present relationships and in your present circumstances? Find concrete ways to express this "open hands" generosity.

Aging and Disability Services Needs Community Input

Aging and Disability Services (ADS) for King County is preparing a plan which will guide their decision and funding priorities from 2012 to 2015. ADS needs to hear from Seattle and King County residents from all ages who are invited to complete a questionnaire.

Responses to the questionnaire will affect quality of life, independence and choices for older people and adults with disabilities. Everybody is aging, so everybody should care.

The questionnaire is posted at www.agingkingcounty.org. Print copies are also available on request. Please contact ADS Planner Karen Winston at 206-684-0706 or at karen.winston@seattle.gov.

Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT) Stewardship, the Convenient Way

No more last minute check writing. No need to carry cash. One less thing to think about when going out of town or on vacation, now that vacation plans are coming up.

Save time, simplify your life, and help Sacred Heart Parish stabilize its budget and save money. Please pick up an EFT form in the vestibule and return the completed form to the office or drop it in the offertory basket. For more information, please call the office at 206-284-4680.

Please remember Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in your will.
