May 22, 2011

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish,

Father Joe is on a short vacation with his family and he has asked that I write a few lines for the bulletin this week.

AS I SEE IT... we have much to look forward to, here at Sacred Heart. In another six weeks, we will have a new administration in the parish. Father Joe Ngo will be moving on to a new appointment and I will return to the status of "retired" (which means help-out ministry). The Redemptorist Provincial Government will be appointing a new team to run the parish - a pastor and associate. With their arrival this summer, they will have some very positive agendas awaiting them.

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation will open soon and Amazon will also be opening their new offices. With both of these large office complexes, I think we will be seeing a surge of new people moving into our area - and possibly taking up residence in our parish.

The development of a new parish hall and elevator are certainly outstanding items on the proposed agenda for the new administration. If we are a welcoming community and open to some new ideas, I think Sacred Heart Parish will see some new growth and positive developments. New parishioners always bring new ideas.

It is always good to look back and see where we have been, but at the same time, we need to look forward to the challenges that the Lord is sending us. We need to continue to grow and develop in our faith and our commitment to the Lord. I would hope that we would all be open to new ideas, new fellow parishioners, and the growth in our faith that the Lord will be calling us to. Good things are coming our way - and we can only thank the Lord for His blessings during this Easter Season.

Have a great week,
Fr. Bill Cleary, C.Ss.R.
