Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

Today Jesus shows us a way to work towards reconciliation whenever a relationship is fractured or broken. Instead of getting into a shouting match to satisfy one's egotistic needs, or sweeping a wrong under the carpet to avoid truthful living, or starting a chain of gossip to punish the wrong doer, etc., Jesus wants us to engage in a process of mutual reconciliation and healing. The process begins with one-on-one correction; and in case of failure we move toward confronting the offender with the help of an additional few (persons), and eventually with the at-large community. This process of fraternal correction, St. Paul insists, must always be based on and guided by life-giving love! Only with unselfish love that a community of faith can grow together and be a credible witness for Christ in the world.

Our own parish, Sacred Heart of Jesus, has been admittedly fractured in recent past by various groups of people, including priests and laity. Our faith-living has been tested, and our common directions weakened. Though we together have made commendable efforts toward greater understandings, our community – young and older, new or seasoned parishioner – is still in need of God's healing. On that note, there will be a HEALING MASS next Saturday (September 10th) at our 5:30 p.m. Vigil Eucharist. On that evening, we will also commemorate the 10th Anniversary of the September 11th event. Please invite each other to join in prayer at this Healing Mass. Let us continue growing into credible witnesses for Christ Jesus throughout the greater Metropolitan of Seattle.

This Tuesday & Wednesday I will participate, along with 45 other Redemptorists, in a workshop called "Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults." This workshop is designed to help priests and brothers deepen our Redemptorist commitment to serve God's people with integrity and accountability. Our own Fr. Mark will do so later in September. Please keep all of us in your prayers.

Labor Day traditionally marks the end of Summer time. Please pray for our children and all those who will soon begin a new academic year of learning and growth.

September also marks the return of this year's RCIA program. Please check the bulletin for more details on this exciting, best-kept-secret of our Catholic Church!

This Sunday, September 4, will be Fr. Ray Maiser's 81st birthday, and my 18th anniversary of priestly ordination. Please help us in thanking God for the gift of life and the gift of priestly vocation/service.

Peace & blessing,

Fr. Binh
