Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart Parish,

If there is a quality in a person that attracts most of us, it is his or her “commitment to always follow-through.” We appreciate those people who actually do what they say they are going to do. We can trust them and depend on them.

In today’s gospel Jesus describes two kinds of people – those who initially say “no” but then change their hearts to carry out the tasks asked of them anyhow, and those who say “yes” but failed to follow through with their promise. In the end, it is those who fulfill God’s will, who – by living out or following through with their inner convictions – are judged as righteous people who preserve their lives for the Reign of God.

As we gather to celebrate God’s gift of the Eucharist, all of us are embraced by Jesus, whose eternal “yes” liberates us to live in the Holy Spirit. Let the power of the Eucharist awaken our individual and collective “baptismal yes” to follow Jesus Christ with joy and hope. Let His Eucharistic Love inspire us to live as faithful stewards of God’s gifts of time, talents, and treasure in our everyday relationships.

On that note, today’s bulletin insert provides us two opportunities to deepen our love for the Eucharist – one, through continuing preparation for and increasing appreciation of the new Roman Missal; second, our urgent voice to elected representatives in Congress to support the Respect for Rights of Conscience Act (H.R. 1179, S. 1467).

Next weekend the Finance Council will make an annual report on our parish’s 2010-2011 Pastoral Services and Financial Status. Please pray that, from our collective sacrifices, Sacred Heart continues to be faithful steward to God’s mission at this moment and into the future.

God’s peace and joy to all of you ... always!

Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

*There is a reason...
For every pain that we must bear,
For every burden, every care,
There is a reason;
For every grief that bows the head,
For every teardrop that is shed,
There is a reason;
For every hurt, for every plight,
For every lonely pain, racked night,
There is a reason;
But if we trust God as we should,
It will work out for our own good.
He knows the reason.*
