MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic community dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, ministered by the Redemptorists in the Archdiocese of Seattle.

We are a welcoming community of baptized disciples. Through our Liturgy, Sacraments, Faith Formation, and Pastoral Care, we dedicate ourselves to being:

- a Sacramental Community united in God's love
- a Community of Faith which shares in the teaching mission of Christ
- a Community of Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure serving people most in need
- a Community called to witness and proclaim the Good News through the power of the Holy Spirit

With the grace of God, the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the maternal protection of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, we devote ourselves to living this mission.

Pastor: Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

Parochial Vicar: Fr. Mark Scheffler, C.Ss.R.

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

In the gospel Jesus identifies himself as the good shepherd, who leads, nurtures, corrects, and lays down his life to protect his flock of sheep. For Jesus, being a good shepherd, with all its implications, is first of all rooted in his profound understanding of being “a beloved Son of God.” Today’s gospel offers us – “children of God” (2nd reading) – both comfort and challenge. It is comforting that Jesus the Good Shepherd knows us ... really, really knows each and all of us, inside out. The challenge is that every baptized Christian is a good shepherd not only to people entrusted to our care, but also to those that “do not belong to this fold.”

The Good Shepherd Sunday is also the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Thank God for women and men in consecrated life (i.e., vowed religious, deacons, priests), and entrust them to the loving care and guidance of the Good Shepherd. Consecrated life is not a “competing” way of life to the vocations of single (or single again) and of marriage. Rather, all vocations are blessed and complimentary to each other. Without one, our faith life as a Christian community is so much poorer. Anyone who feels called to help forming a “Religious Vocations Committee” at Sacred Heart parish? This possibility may also be explored at our upcoming Community Forum.

Following up on last week’s bulletin, the Community Forum on the life and future of OUR parish, including the Archbishop’s letter on Referendum 74, is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., on Tuesday, May 8, 2012, in the Fellowship Room. The Pastoral Council is working on plans to celebrate our parish’s patron feast of Sacred Heart and Mother of Perpetual Help Novena in June. Please continue holding Sacred Heart parish and each other, as sons and daughters of God, in your daily prayer.

I am deeply grateful to Fr. Pete (Bill Peterson) for his Redemptorist dedication and generosity. He single-handedly earned his keeps for “holding the fort” this past week.

With love of Christ the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

“The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common.

There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property or houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to need.”

Acts 4:32,34-35

2012 Annual Catholic Appeal

The Annual Catholic Appeal is the major way the Archdiocese raises money for its ministries and services, which are:

- Central Agencies & Offices (Faith Formation, Tribunal, Vicar for Clergy, Missions, Catholic Housing Services, etc.)
- Regional Programs (Catholic Community Services)
- Archdiocesan Programs (Youth & Young Adult Ministry)
- State, National, & International Church Responsibilities
- Retirement for Priests & Sisters
- Priest Support

One person or parish cannot do this alone. This is a united effort: to be in union with one Church, one body of Christ, and one in communion with each other.

Our parish goal this year is $42,185

Every dollar given over the goal is returned to our parish.

You may donate online by clicking on the Annual Catholic Appeal button on the bottom left screen of the parish website:

www.sacredheartseattle.com. Thank you for your participation.

First Friday Eucharistic Adoration

May 4, 1:00PM - 5:30PM, in the Church

*Jesus said before His crucifixion,
 "Can you not spend one hour with me?"*

Jesus loves us without limit and offers Himself to us in the Holy sacrament of the Eucharist. Can we not give Jesus a few minutes of adoration in return?

"Every effort should be made to ensure that there are at least two people present. There must absolutely never be periods when the Blessed Sacrament is \ exposed and no one is present" (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops publication, Thirty-One Questions on Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament - page 11)

Is the Lord inviting you to be His faithful companion during this private time? Please prayerfully consider committing to half an hour of Eucharistic Adoration. Sign-up sheets are available in the vestibule.

Queen Anne Food Bank at Sacred Heart

The Queen Anne Food Bank at Sacred Heart was awarded the Queen Anne Chamber of Commerce Service Award of 2011! The ceremony took place at the Space Needle and Elise Hale-Case, food bank Director, and John Comerford, Board President, were present to receive the award.

Volunteers Needed:

The Food Bank is looking for volunteers who can commit 2-4 hours one day per week to help organize, cook, and sort incoming donations in the food bank. No skills are required, just a willingness to help!

The Food Bank is also looking for drivers to accompany our delivery man, Ted, on his pick-ups at grocery stores around the neighborhood. Volunteer drivers must have a clean driving record and be able to commit to 4 hours one day/week.

Donations Needed:

- radio
 - laundry soap
 - paper napkins
 - 10oz or bigger paper cups for hot soup
 - computer speakers
 - dish soap
 - robocoup mixing bowl
