God bless you!

In today's gospel Jesus continues the message He spoke to last Sunday – 'Come and get to know who I truly am!' Last week, He referred to Himself as "one sent" by the Father and giving "life to the world." And today He refers to Himself as the "bread of life," "the living bread that came down from heaven." We are not talking "manna" here, which, by the way, lasts but for the day. 'I offer myself and in a way that will enable you to live forever! Come and get to know who I truly am!'

Our bulletin last week carried a message that we are preparing to start our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) Program in September. What a wonderful opportunity to "come to know" your faith, your church, and, yes, Jesus more intimately! It is a quite special program for those wanting to become Catholic. Yet others also attend just to better appreciate their Catholic faith. What is it that you want to know; what are you curious about; how can your faith be more relevant in your life? Come and get to know, along with the rest of us!

And we are happy to announce that Robert Barron's series on CATHOLICISM: A Journey to the Heart of the Faith is being offered again! Our Young Adult Ministry (YAM) group will be hosting a showing of this quite popular series after Mass on Sunday evenings beginning September 23rd. There were some 25 who attended the series this past spring and it was "the kind of inspiring educational happening that you hated to see come to a close." Come and get to know and appreciate your faith and your church from its beginnings and across time and cultures around the world! Check for future bulletin announcements and bulletin board postings for more information.

Understanding how God is present in the moment, in the ordinary and trying times of our lives -was experienced by ten who participated in the Bereavement Support Group hosted by Sacred Heart last winter and spring. "Learning from others," "getting in touch with feelings and dealing effectively with them," "coming to know that you are not alone," "trusting in God," "thank you" – these were just a few of the comments offered from participants. If you are grieving over the loss of a loved one, come join us and know that it is easier to make this journey together. Call the parish rectory to register.

We come to know God in the breaking of the bread, in the ways we support one another through broken moments, in how we find meaning and life in the faith we share. Stop! Pay attention! Listen! Each day the mystery of life is unfolding all around you and in each of us. Take nothing for granted. God is present! How will you come to know Him this day? God bless you all and wonderfully so!

Father Mark Scheffler, C.Ss.R.

The Canticle of Mary

*"My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord;
My spirit rejoices in God my savior.
For he has looked upon his handmaid's lowliness;
Behold, from now on will all ages call me blessed.
The Mighty One has done great things for me,
And holy is his name.*

The Canticle of Mary (continuation from previous page)

*His mercy is from age to age to those who fear him.
He has shown might with his arm,
dispersed the arrogant of mind and heart.
He has thrown down the rulers from their thrones
but lifted up the lowly.
The hungry he has filled with good things;
the rich he has sent away empty.
He has helped Israel his servant, remembering his mercy,
according to his promise to our fathers,
to Abraham and to his descendants forever."*

Luke 1:46-55
