Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

Today's scripture readings highlight some intense "ups and downs" of human experiences. At times we perhaps feel like the innocent Job – being inflicted with a series of misfortunes, though after having made best effort to live right. We thus fittingly cry out: "Why me?" "Is human life worth living?" In the Gospel, Jesus comes along, not rationalizing the above questions with impersonal answers. Rather, through acts of healing (Simon's mother-in-law), fervent preaching (from one town to another), and ultimately dying on the cross, Jesus enters into the depth of our pain, "holding our hands" and crying with us through the pain ... until a new resurrected life emerges. A "new, healed, renewed" life responds with a heart of service, as exemplified by Simon's mother-in-law. That's the GOOD-NEWS (read: Gospel) which Paul passionately proclaims. That is also your call and my call!

This Sunday marks the 16th World Day for Consecrated Life. In our archdiocese, hundreds of religious men and women such as Redemptorists, Christian Brothers, and Franciscan Sisters serve in a variety of ministries: as parish priests, teachers, health care specialists, retreat work, prison chaplain, and social activists among the poor and marginalized. In the words of Pope Benedict: "... consecrated men and women are granted to show the primacy of God, passion for the Gospel practiced as a form of life and proclaimed to the poor and lowliest of the earth." Please continue your prayers that we in consecrated life be faithful to follow Christ in our service to humanity. Also, to all of you single men and women, pray to become a consecrated religious. Hey, if God can take a "crazy" guy like me, why not you :)

Our parish leadership is planning a five-evening Lenten series called "Catholicism 102." This series will cover a variety of pertinent topics to enrich our spiritual life. Further details will be forthcoming.

THANKS to Our Mother of Perpetual Help, the Food Lifeline Network has APPROVED our parish's ability to operate a food program. Additional details are in today's bulletin. Thank you for your prayers!

Again, thanks to all of you who responded to Fr. Jim Shea's invitation to join the Co-Redemptorist Association. Your partnership with the Redemptorists strengthens God's mission here and beyond.

With love in Christ the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

Food Program...Coming Soon!

The Food Lifeline Network has enthusiastically agreed to support our food program as a "free-standing" agency (a rare, credible, fast-tracking feat ...thanks to Elise Hale-Case and John Comerford). The program's Board of Directors will meet this Wednesday to work on proper policies and procedures, which aim to assure this exciting ministry's integrity and its sustainable future. God willing, we hope to begin serving sack lunches to homeless folks in about two weeks, and soon after providing groceries and other services to underemployed families. Please call Elise at 206-284-4680 for volunteer opportunities.

Lenten Soup and Bread Suppers Fridays from February 24 to March 30 After the 6:30pm Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross is a popular reflection to follow Jesus Christ on his way to Calvary. For us Catholics, it is one of the most important devotions honoring the passion of Jesus. As we follow Christ in His passion, we see ourselves mirrored in Him. To face life's dark side in ourselves and in our world, we need images of hope, and Jesus offers images of hope in His passion. By accompanying Him on the Way of the Cross, we gain His courageous patience, learn to trust in God who delivers us from evil, and rise with Christ to new life.
