MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic community dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, ministered by the Redemptorists in the Archdiocese of Seattle.

We are a welcoming community of baptized disciples. Through our Liturgy, Sacraments, Faith Formation, and Pastoral Care, we dedicate ourselves to being:

- a Sacramental Community united in God's love
- a Community of Faith which shares in the teaching mission of Christ
- a Community of Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure serving people most in need
- a Community called to witness and proclaim the Good News through the power of the Holy Spirit

With the grace of God, the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the maternal protection of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, we devote ourselves to living this mission.

God bless you!

Today's gospel, I would think, describes a typical day in the life of Jesus. His reputation has spread as a healer – people now coming to Him all the time for healing and others just wanting to watch and see what He will do this time. Today it is a woman hemorrhaging for twelve years and a little girl dying. Crowds gather; all are watching and the day has only begun.

How often are our days the same? OK, well, maybe no one is asking us to heal the incurable or raise the dead. However, our days can be full of other demands and have their own stresses and still other things are asked of us. I and Father Binh are particularly grateful for the many times we have asked and you have responded. Thank you!

Our Novena in Honor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help was a great success and enjoyed by many because of many. Noemi Reyes and Kate Vincent gave extra of themselves to provide our novena booklets to start us off. And we ended with a beautiful supper after the final liturgy – Roberta de Vera, Maria Limtiaco, Joann DeFratis, Loreta Pantig, Elizabeth Tamayo, and Pat Nolan and others preparing the hall and providing the food. But these are just a few of you who gave of yourselves and made it happen. Thank you!

Our Annual Catholic Appeal and the goal we have set is happening also. We can reach this! We will be assisting so many others in so many ways by our generosity! If you have yet to make a donation or a pledge, please consider doing so today. And to all of you who have generously pledged and given – Thank you!

And this might seem a little thing, but I also want to thank all of you who have been helping us with our parking difficulties. These days, especially, many venues are taking place at the Seattle Center and it is tempting to want to park in our lot for this. But, of course, so many who come to attend Mass have no place to park. Please, everyone, be considerate! Our lot is so small and so we have to encourage "No Event Parking." To all who have been helping us with this – Thank you!

And still another way you can help? When was the last time you enjoyed singing? Why not think of joining our choir? After the 9:00am Sunday Mass our choir practices. Come and listen and see if you have a gift we might all enjoy. And to all our choir members who are currently sharing their talent – Thank you!

OH, a special reminder before I run out of room – this Wednesday, July 4th, there will only be one Mass and this at 9:00am. There will be no 8:00am or 12:10 pm Masses. This seemed to work well in past years so we continue the custom. Have a wonderful holiday!

Now I have run out of room and I have only begun to thank you – you who quit work early to lector at a liturgy; you who quietly cleaned up the hall after an event, and on and on and on – your names are written in our hearts. You have helped and healed in your own beautiful ways – Thank you! God bless you all and wonderfully so!

Eucharistic Adoration

July 6, 1:00PM - 5:30PM, in the Church

"There must absolutely never be periods when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed and no one is present" (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops publication, Thirty-One Questions on Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament - page 11)

Please prayerfully consider committing to half an hour of Eucharistic Adoration. Sign-up sheets are available in the vestibule.

Practicing Compassion of Jesus

Compassion is not pity. Pity lets us stay at a distance.

Pity is condescending.

Compassion is not sympathy.

Sympathy is for superiors over inferiors.

Compassion is not charity. Charity is for the rich to continue their status over the poor.

Compassion is born of God. It means entering into the other person's burdens. It means standing in his/her shoes.

It is the opposite of professionalism.

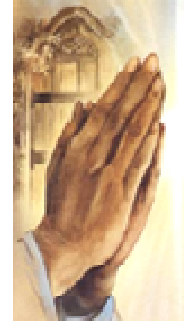

It is the humanizing way to deal with people.

"Just as bread without love can bring war instead of peace, professionalism without compassion will turn forgiveness into a gimmick."

(Quoted in "The Wounded Healer," by Fr. Henri Nouwen)

Rest in Peace

† Violet Storm †

Vi was called to receive her eternal reward in the early evening of June 21st. Vi was a parishioner of Sacred Heart for many years and in that time dedicated herself to the St. Vincent de Paul program of caring for the poor and needy. For some time, she helped prepare daily sandwiches and food for hundreds who would come to the door. She is survived by her son, Jamie.

Truly she lived the Gospel, "whatsoever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters you do unto Me." Services are pending. May she rest in peace!

Fourth of July!
