Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

Today's sacred scriptures delight us with the almighty God whose tender "heart is moved with pity" at the sight of the lost, the abused, the abandoned, the searcher, etc. As the Good Shepherd, God stoops down to care for all of us, his sheep. The readings also implicitly invite us, regardless of one's baptized vocation, to faithfully and responsibly exercise God-given authority as parent or child in the family, as laity or religious or priest in the church, and as a committed Christian in society. In extending our kindness to others, let us also attend to our own needs, so that we can do more in the name of Christ. Today, Jesus invites his disciples, who came back from a grueling mission, to rest in a quiet place ... WITH HIM.

For any committed Christian in 2012, our life is a continuing movement, at times a delicate tension, between responding to people's "real needs" and needing to humbly draw away to a restful place to be physically-emotionally-spiritually recharged, as well as to assess oneself (i.e., energy level, ways of doing, motives). In our constantly "wired" world (i.e., cell phone, internet, TV) living out such a balance requires humility-discipline-love from each of us and much grace from God. Dear God, please help us!

Essentially our Christian life, in order to be filled with joy and purpose and meaning, consists of being with God in a solitude place (i.e., heart to heart space), so that we may know our true selves and serve God in people we meet in the marketplace... and back again. Spend a moment with Jesus before the Blessed Sacrament, or read your spiritual book with a cup of tea on your home patio, or take a prayerful walk in a neighborhood park, etc. Be with Jesus often, and our "breathing" and our "sleep" will be easier.

To our elders, know that Sacred Heart wants to support you. Please check out a special opportunity for a holy pilgrimage in August, organized by the Sacred Heart Seniors Group. Contact Maria Limtiaco or Joann DeFratis for more details (also in today's bulletin).

Our Young Adults Ministry group (YAMs) is sponsoring a summer BBQ after the 5:30pm Mass next Sunday, July 29. If you wish to join this fun-filled fellowship, please contact Brendan Thompson at 480-209-8961 or email him at mbthompson30@hotmail.com

Again we are glad to welcome our fellow Catholics, from near and far lands, who choose Sacred Heart to be their temporary spiritual home during travel time. As a gift for our guests, we invoke God's abundant blessings upon travelers after the announcement at the end of each Mass during summer months.

Thanks to your generosity, we have reached 99% of this year's Archdiocesan Catholic Appeal (ACA). For those of us who have not had the opportunity to contribute, including our visitors, know that your support to our ACA assessment will make a lasting difference. Thank you for considering.

With love of Christ the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.
