Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

During my years in St. Louis and Chicago, January and February were bitterly cold. And I was often assured by weather junkies that it's just "hibernation tunnel." Spring will come. And summer will be exhilarating. Though I rolled my eyes in disbelief at the saying, I must admit that they were always right!

Ok, "Seattleites," hang in there. As the curtain for March is being lifted, our scriptures both stretch and console us as pilgrims in faith. Today Jesus is transfigured into a glorious body. In revealing his divine nature, Jesus prepares his disciples for the scandal of the cross and dark days ahead. He also hints of the heavenly glory to which we are all destined. While not denying negativities and challenges that come at us in everyday life, it is wise not to allow them to push us further down. Remember who we really are – dignified children of God. With divine grace and hope-against-hope, let us transfigure (i.e., transform) hurts, isolation, despair into acts of solidarity and kindness. Jesus Christ did it. May we follow his step as we continue our journey of Lent towards the exhilarating Easter!

From your feedbacks and requests, here it is: The "Catholicism 102" series will begin in two weeks. Further details are on the next page of this bulletin. Give yourself a chance to grow further in Catholic faith, and mark your calendar.

This weekend all parishes in the U.S. participate in the Annual Collection for the Black and Indian Mission. It is the oldest national appeal. Your prayers and monetary sacrifices enable dedicated missionaries to continue evangelization efforts among African Americans and Native Americans. Please use the envelopes in the pew pockets.

At all weekend Masses of March 17-18, our parish will hold a "Ministry Fair." Sharing your gifts of time and talents in any ministry is a practical way for us to live and grow in our faith as baptized Catholics. In today's bulletin insert is a list of available ministries at Sacred Heart. Please take it to prayer, and discern what areas of ministries that you feel God is calling you to get involved.

With love in Christ the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

Congratulations to the catechumens and candidates in our RCIA program, who were recently "elected" to join the Catholic Church by Archbishop J. Peter Sartain at St. James Cathedral. Please welcome them into our parish family at the 9 a.m. Mass this Sunday. And please keep them in your prayers, as they continue their journey of "conversion" to the water of Baptism on Easter Vigil, April 7th.
