Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

A blessed Mother's Day to all who are living, or once lived, this sacred vocation. God's gift of motherhood doesn't just involve giving birth. Indeed it continues with endless educating and sacrifices. President Abraham Lincoln captures best the gift of motherhood, "All that I am, or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother." Today, whether mom is deceased or living let us take time to thank her. Most importantly, pray for mom, and entrust her to the loving God at Mass!!

As we honor our mothers, let our heart turn to Mary, the mother! In saying "yes" to Jesus throughout his life, particularly at the foot of his Cross, the Blessed Virgin Mary embraces all of us as her daughters and sons. At the 11 a.m. Mass on Sunday, May 27th our parish will celebrate her devotion to God and her love for humanity with a time-honored Catholic tradition, "MAY CROWNING." Please invite each other to this celebration.

At our first "Community Forum" this past Tuesday, twenty five people came to dialogue on issues pertaining our parish life and future, including leadership assessment, community interactions, and Archbishop Sartain's letter on the Referendum 74. While exchanging perspectives on those issues with passion, those of us present maintained a genuine, respectful conversation throughout the evening. I was and still am deeply proud of such high level of honesty and respect we held for each other, even in the face of clear disagreement. On the Referendum 74, those who wish to sign the petition can do so in our parish office after Saturday Vigil and Sunday Masses next weekend, May 19-20, or between 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Thank you, Laura Taylor and Christian Wong, for your heartfelt sharing on the Archdiocese's Annual Catholic Appeal. This year Sacred Heart parish is designated to raise $42,185.00 for this campaign. So far your generosity has reached almost 1/3 of the needed amount. For those of us who have not yet contributed, please prayerfully consider doing so. Thank you. And God's blessing on your precious sacrifice!!

This week I am in Houston to help celebrate my beloved dad's 85th birthday. Having lost my dear mom in 2007, I realize that dad's remaining years is all I have. On this Mother's Day, thank you, mommy-dad!

With love of Christ the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.
