Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

To all of us, happy birthday – OUR COMMUNAL gift of new life. On this day, the Feast of Pentecost, our Church was born by the Holy Spirit's outpouring grace upon the early Christians ... and, by extension of Baptism/Confirmation, upon us in 2012. Since that day the Holy Spirit has actively inspired, guided, and sanctified us – individually and/or collectively – in all aspects of life. Every single day I witness the Holy Spirit at work: An elder man, with his eyes closed, or a young lady, with head buried in her hands, submerges in prayer in our quiet church (Romans 8:26). A stream of penitents humbly seeks a new start through the Sacrament of Reconciliation (John 20:21-23). A volunteer gently hands a cup of hot soup to a homeless person (Matt. 25). An interfaith group discerns responsible ways to assist newly arrived immigrants to adjust their dignified life in Seattle (I Cor. 3:16). Witnessing those and many more ... I am profoundly grateful. With the Holy Spirit, human kindness is "renewing the face of the earth"!

On kindness, thanks to your sacrifice to the Archdiocese's Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA)! Our parish has reached 72% of the designated amount ($42,185). Compared to recent past, this year's pace is very encouraging. To those who have not pledged or contributed to the ACA, please know that Sacred Heart relies on your sacrifice to meet our goal as soon as possible. To our guests and fellow Catholics, we too are grateful for your generosity. Your donation (whether $10 or $100 or more) will help Sacred Heart stand in solidarity with the Archdiocese's mission. May the Holy Spirit doubly enrich you for your precious sacrifice!!

This past Saturday we completed a ten-session Catholicism series. The participants enjoyed new learning and mutual fellowship so much that they recommended the series to be offered again this summer or fall. We will. On behalf of Fr. Mark, thanks to all who took part in this faith enrichment, and a special gratitude to Joann DeFratris for wonderful lunches.

Also, thanks to the Legion of Mary for sponsoring this year's MAY CROWNING. As we honor our Blessed Mother Mary at the 11 a.m. Mass this Sunday, let us imitate her unbending devotion to God and her love for humanity.

Last but not least, a blessed Memorial Day's to all. While the parish office is closed this Monday, we will continue to offer two daily Masses and Sacrament of Confessions as usual. On this Memorial Day, let us pray for all unsung heroes (and their families) who have sacrificed to protect our precious gift of freedom. May the Holy Spirit speed the gift of world peace to the human family and to our universe!

With love of Christ the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.
