Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

“Master, I want to see” is not only a pleading for eye-sight but also a testament of faith by an insignificant blind beggar, Bartimaeus. Biblically speaking, blindness implies being disconnected to life; beggar entails utter dependency; and roadside sitting means being marginalized. Yet, as the story unfolds, Bartimaeus not only can see, but his gift of seeing further evolves into so much more: a clear vision of life. He gratefully follows Jesus on the way to Jerusalem. “The way” is a biblical codeword for everything that is Jesus, thus the ultimate model of discipleship! Bartimaeus reminds me of a Persian proverb, “A blind person who sees is better than a seeing person who is blind.” His faith and gratitude and generosity invites God’s gift of salvation, “Your faith has saved you.” So, may Jesus unlock your heart and mine, helping us see and sing with the psalmist, “The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.”

Our gracious God has indeed done so much great things for and at Sacred Heart this past year. At all Masses this weekend various members of the Finance Council present our parish’s “Annual Pastoral and Fiscal Report.” As you review and reflect on the report, know that each and all of you have “incarnated” God’s outpouring love at Sacred Heart and beyond so generously and faithfully. I am very grateful for being a part of your faith life, and am sincerely proud of you! Let us keep up the good work.

This coming Thursday (November 1st) is the Feast of All Saints. Being a saint means being holy! So, this feast is really about you and me – our origin and our destiny. Our origin, since we are made in the image and likeness of God, who is the source of holiness. Our destiny, as we are reminded by Jesus, “Be holy as your heavenly Father is holy.” Thus, whether married or single, a cook or an engineer or a priest, all of us are called to holiness, to live and become a saint. This feast is a Holy Day of Obligation. There are three opportunities for Mass at Sacred Heart: 8:00 am, 12:10 pm, and 7:00 pm.

On the saintly note, Pope Benedict XVI recently canonized seven people to sainthood. One of whom is St. Pedro Calungsod, a Filipino catechist who was martyred while caring for people in Guam. Please celebrate with us at a Mass of Thanksgiving at 11 a.m. this Sunday.

As the Fall weather comes upon us, it’s time for a “health checkup.” Please invite each other and join us at the “Wellness Fair” this Sunday, 10:00am - 1:00pm.

November 2nd is the Feast of ALL SOULS. On this day and throughout the month of November, let us lift up our deceased family members, former parishioners, friends, and acquaintances to the merciful God in our prayers, especially at Mass. As we remember them, trust that they intercede for us before God.

With love of Christ the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.
