MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic community dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, ministered by the Redemptorists in the Archdiocese of Seattle.

We are a welcoming community of baptized disciples. Through our Liturgy, Sacraments, Faith Formation, and Pastoral Care, we dedicate ourselves to being:

- a Sacramental Community united in God's love
- a Community of Faith which shares in the teaching mission of Christ
- a Community of Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure serving people most in need
- a Community called to witness and proclaim the Good News through the power of the Holy Spirit

With the grace of God, the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the maternal protection of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, we devote ourselves to living this mission.

God bless you!

Just last Monday, Jesus was in the temple and He read from a scroll, put it down, and said: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And He did it again! When He healed the deaf man in this day's gospel, Jesus is fulfilling just what Isaiah prophesied: When God comes, the ears of the deaf will be opened, and those without speech will sing for joy.

We are still in need of a few more who are willing to use their gift of song or speech to proclaim the Word as a lector at Mass, a commentator or cantor, a musician who allows our piano to sing, a Eucharistic Minister or an usher to caringly gather up from the gracious what might help us to provide for the ministries we offer here at Sacred Heart. In October we will have two Liturgy Training Days. Why not give us a call to hear more.

I love this quote by Ven. Emmanuel D'Alzon: "Lord, open our eyes to our true destiny and make us understand that seeking to glorify you on earth is our first duty and the surest means of reaching our true greatness in eternity." Might one of the above be a way for you to glorify the Lord?

Last week, Father Binh mentioned our also needing sponsors or god-parents for potential candidates in our RCIA program, which begins this Monday, September 10th at 7:00pm – certainly another way to glorify the Lord! Participating in this program or planning to participate in Father Robert Barron's CATHOLICISM series, which is hosted by our Young Adult Group on Sunday evenings are ways we can more deeply appreciate and live our faith and therein also give glory to the Lord!

Last Thursday, Jesus challenged Peter to believe in Him and they ended up with two boat-loads of fish. We provide the nets and the skills. The Lord will provide the catch. Believe in yourself and trust in Him!

And I too would like to thank all of you (as Father Binh did) – who helped make last weekend's Jubilee Celebration with Archbishop Peter Sartain such a resounding success. So many of you helped clean and beautify our MPH Hall, assist in the Mass of Thanksgiving, bring and serve such a delicious array of food as well as provide for a Sunday evening dinner for all of our visiting priest guests, and on and on... We can't thank you enough for all the love and generosity that contributed to the success of this beautiful event!

Thank you for all you have provided. We look forward to greater things still as together we participate in fulfilling the scriptures with Jesus! God bless you all and wonderfully so!

Father Mark Scheffler, C.Ss.R.

RCIA Sponsors - who, me?

Yes, you! What does it take to be a sponsor for an RCIA candidate? Here is a summary of your role as a sponsor:

- Be a living model of faith. It is critical that a sponsor genuinely practices his/her faith
- Pray for your candidate and yourself. Your prayers for your candidates are important as he/she begins a journey of faith towards baptism. Occasionally attend Mass and come to the Sacrament of Reconciliation together.
- Give of your time and share your faith. Every now and then, join in the RCIA sessions with your candidate to share in his/her journey of faith. It takes willingness to share your faith and your time, but trust that God can never be outdone by our generosity.

Candidates for RCIA (Rite of Initiation for Christian Adults)

- Are you a non-Catholic who wants to find out more about the Catholic Faith?
- Do you want to join the Catholic Church through Baptism or Profession of Faith?
- Are you a baptized Catholic but never received religious education, Confirmation, or First Communion?

If you answer "Yes" to any of the questions above & you are interested to sign up, call the office at 206-284-4680 or complete the blue RCIA form in the vestibule.

The first RCIA session is on September 10, Monday at 7:00pm in the Fellowship Room.
