- a Community of Faith which shares in the teaching mission of Christ
- a Community of Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure serving people most in need
- a Community called to witness and proclaim the Good News through the power of the Holy Spirit

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

In today's gospel, Jesus is given a celebrity reception from hometown folks in Nazareth. His far and wide reputation as a prophetic healer elicits in them native pride and much expectation. Their initial "red-carpet" treatment for Jesus, however, turns into rage, when he insists that his gifts are meant to benefit all – not only for a familiar few but also include "outsiders" of their local community. Jesus implicitly invites them to widen their narrow vision of God's unmerited grace. In the end, unsatisfied by their own perverse expectation of possessing Jesus according to their own terms, they "exile him and even seek his death."

Sr. Ella Allen, SCIC, says it best: "Like the Nazarenes we can sometimes become complacent. Familiarity with the gospel blinds us to its challenges. The call of the poor becomes distant. We ignore injustice that does not touch us directly." Instead of pick and choose Jesus according to our timing, or box him to neatly fit our agenda, may we follow him "to venture beyond the familiar; may we be bold in response to need, generous in compassion, and open to possibility as we continue his mission in our own time and place."

This Sunday is "World Day for Consecrated Life." Please join me in thanking God for the gift of all those who have dedicated their lives in serving God and the world as religious priests, sisters, or brothers. Also, please pray for those who are considering priesthood or consecrated life, and for those who are not considering such a vocation but should be! Archbishop Sartain offers a very insightful article on this way of life. It can be accessed at:

www.seattlearchdiocese.org/Assets/ARCH/3384_01102013.pdf

Amid the raging flu outbreak, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops urged the use of common sense and basic hygiene at communal gatherings, especially at Mass. Priests and lay ministers of the Eucharist should "wash their hands before Mass" or sanitize with antibacterial lotion prior to distributing the Holy Communion. For those who are ill, please refrain from receiving the Sacred Blood from the chalice.

We are still accepting names for the multipurpose room, i.e., group meeting, Sacrament of Reconciliation, recreation, in the basement. Submit names that best reflect the history/character of our parish, or its above-mentioned purposes. Email your entries to fr.binh@sacredheartseattle.com, or place them in the collection basket by Feb.10.

With love of Christ, the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh T. Ta, C.Ss.R.

Lead Us to Love

God of Life, awaken us to the depth and breadth of Your love.

When we encounter the cross in our own lives and struggle to find courage to keep going,

Lead us to love.

When we are worried and anxious
by those things beyond our control,

Lead us to love.

When hurt or anger cause us to pull back or disengage from those around us,

Lead us to love.

When we turn away from Your Word or fail to love as we should,

Lead us to love. Amen.
