MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic community dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, ministered by the Redemptorists in the Archdiocese of Seattle.

We are a welcoming community of baptized disciples. Through our Liturgy, Sacraments, Faith Formation, and Pastoral Care, we dedicate ourselves to being:

- a Sacramental Community united in God's love
- a Community of Faith which shares in the teaching mission of Christ
- a Community of Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure serving people most in need
- a Community called to witness and proclaim the Good News through the power of the Holy Spirit

With the grace of God, the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the maternal protection of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, we devote ourselves to living this mission.

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

A Buddhist friend, who after having attended Catholic Mass, remarked, “The thing y’all read in there is powerful. It makes sense. By the way, be ready, ‘coz it can change you without you even knowing it.” What that friend referred to was our Sacred Scriptures being proclaimed at Mass. His insightful observation echoes what the ancient Israelites (first reading), experienced when the Word of God was read to them. They “listened attentively,” realizing that “your words, Lord, are Spirit and life” (psalm response). Afterward, they “wept.” Whether out of joy or repentance or gratitude, the people felt so alive and hope-filled, that they rebuilt the ruined city of Jerusalem back to its life and glory!

We are extremely blessed. Unlike our ancestors, a written Bible is available for us nowadays. If ancient people were spiritually energized by God’s inspired words being read occasionally, how more enriched your and my spiritual life can be with a Bible available 24/7 years around? For a “rich” life, regularly read the Bible; meditate on it; let it slowly seep into our heart, and flow out into daily life. Hearing the Words of God only at Sunday Mass is insufficient for any Catholic who wishes to be spiritually mature. St. Jerome once reminded us, “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.” A Redemptorist once unlocked the secret of the acronym B.I.B.L.E. to mean “Basic Information Before Leaving Earth.” So, get to know the mind and heart and soul of God now. It will be easier to recognize God later.

In our weekly bulletin, we list the “daily readings” for us to realistically portion our day for spiritual enrichment. Depending on one’s schedule, check out one or two or all three sections as listed. The key is to pray with the Bible ... regularly, even daily. In this Year of Faith, and as we begin this calendar year, it is great occasion to begin. And be amazed by its beauty.

Our annual parish Volunteer Dinner is around the corner. Please check in this bulletin for more details.

To help all of us celebrate the “Year of Faith,” Sacred Heart will host a Lenten Parish Mission from Sunday, March 17 through Wednesday, March 20, 2013. Fr. Gary Lauenstein, C.Ss.R. (a spiritual master from Toronto, Canada) has kindly agreed to guide us during these days. It will be a grace-filled opportunity for us, to grow deeper in our intimate relationship with Christ and with one another. More details on the mission will be forthcoming. Since such an opportunity only comes every so often, please mark your calendar and share the news with your family/friends/neighbors.

The remodeling room in the basement (across the bathrooms) is practically completed. It is designed as a multipurpose space, i.e., group meeting, daily Sacrament of Reconciliation, recreation. We need a name for this room. So, put on your “creativity hat.” Submit names that best reflects the history or character of Sacred Heart, or its above-mentioned purposes. Email your entries to the parish office, or place them in the collection basket by February 10. The winner will get a prize (and “bragging right”:))

With love of Christ, the Redeemer,
Fr. Binh T. Ta, C.Ss.R.

Stewardship: God's Gift, Our Response – A Christian Way of Life

God has given you a gift, a charism. A charism isn't something you earn. It's a gift entrusted to you for the sake of the whole community, including your church. The only question is whether you will put it at the service of the community or not. Pray that you will grow in your understanding of stewardship of your talents and abilities.
