Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

This Thursday – July 4th – we as a nation celebrate the GIFT OF FREEDOM! Being able to attend school, to vote, to travel, to work, to gather for communal worship, to play, to express one's opinions, etc., is a blessing, thanks to so much sweat, blood, and tears by thousands of committed, life-sacrificing hearts. Similar basic opportunities, for many people such as Christians in Iraq or Lebanon, can only be a dream or must be paid with a stiff price! As we enjoy our Independence Day, thank God for this gift, and please pray for those who are unfortunately deprived at this moment.

Today's scriptures also point us to commitment and freedom. Biblical sense of freedom does not mean doing whatever I want, even legally allowed such as terminating an unborn child, gambling my family paycheck away, perpetuating adult pornography, etc. I may rationalize: "That's my business. I'm free to do whatever pleases me." Well, truth be told, I am (being) slaved to my vices. St. Paul reminds us, "For freedom, Christ set us free. Do not abuse this freedom ... Rather, serve one another through love." Each of us – in whatever walks of life – is wired to live with inner integrity and serve with committed love. As long as we do so for the glory of God and for communal good, we deep down know that we are truly free.

Our hats are tipped to Isabel M. Alamillo for leading a great community night last Friday. The Pictionary game (aka "the battle of the sexes") was so much fun. While the lady team got talented artists, the guy squad got the prize, thanks to Don and Fr. Mark for their "divinely-inspired guesses." Me? Well, if mom were there to see my drawings, she would die laughing ☺ That said, I feel blessed seeing everyone enjoys a great time and meets new friends. Plentiful snacks also helped. Ok, want fun time in a healthy setting, or wish to know fellow parishioners better? Our next monthly "Community Social" will be a movie night. It's scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Friday, July 26. Please mark your calendar; and invite family/friends.

Our gratitude also extends to the Legion of Mary for sponsoring a movie/light refreshment to celebrate the feast of St. John the Baptist last Monday, to Joann DeFratis for hosting a lunch refreshment as well as a team of people (Lorie, Huong, Myrna, Angie, Paul, the Nolan troop) for a potluck dinner as we concluded our four-day Novena of Our Mother of Perpetual Help.

Smell something good this weekend? It's from the "Bake Sale," sponsored by our own Seniors Group. Home baking ... oh yummy, yummy! After every Mass, please stop by "the goodies tent," located outside the front door entrance, to get some cakes/pies/cookies. Nice gifts for family and friends. All proceeds will go to Seniors Fund to support their upcoming spiritual pilgrimages and other group activities. Tasty food, great cause – what a divine combination!

This week I will be away for a summer vacation (family visit and a wedding). I pray that all of you are blessed with a safe and joy-filled July 4th celebration.

Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.
