WE HAVE POPE FRANCIS !

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

The much anticipated white smoke billowing from the roof of the Sistine Chapel last Wednesday, following with “Habemus Papam Franciscum” (We have Pope Francis) announcement, signaled a “new day” for the Roman Catholic Church, and indeed the rest of the world.

Echoing Archbishop Sartain’s sentiment, I am profoundly grateful that “God has been once again faithful to his promise that he would always provide a shepherd for the church.” Let us continue entrust Pope Francis to the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the maternal protection of our Mother of Perpetual Help, that he be bold and generous and compassionate in leading us to Christ in the way of the Gospel days and years ahead.

Pope Francis, formerly Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio of Argentina, is affectionately known as a man of prayer, a humble and genuine champion for poor and marginalized people. His life has truly been a living embodiment of God’s compassion as portrayed by Jesus in today’s gospel. Today is a time of much joy and excitement. Most of all, it is a moment of faith-filled gratitude and hope as we continue inching toward the Holy Week and into the distant future.

This weekend we begin a three-day Lenten Parish Mission, starting at each Mass. We then continue on Monday and Tuesday (see information below). Fr. Gary Lauenstein (also a man of prayer and simplicity, a good-hearted Redemptorist) is excited to be in Seattle (rather than bone-chilling Toronto, Canada) to help us celebrate our faith relationship in God, in Christ Jesus, and in the Church with one another. As a Lenten act of charity, please invite your family and friends and neighbors.

Holy Week is around the corner. To help all of us celebrate this most sacred time, volunteers are (still) needed for various activities (i.e., readers, feet washing, setting up and cleaning). After Mass today, please sign-up for possible roles in the front vestibule. Active contribution boosts our spiritual life and deepens faith experience for all. Thank you in advance for being generous with time and energy.

With love of Christ, the Redeemer
Fr. Binh T. Ta, C.Ss.R.
