- a Community of Faith which shares in the teaching mission of Christ
- a Community of Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure serving people most in need
- a Community called to witness and proclaim the Good News through the power of the Holy Spirit

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

Today's readings describe "moments of critical transition" that our spiritual ancestors faced. In the gospel, Jesus wraps up a three-year training of his disciples, by encouraging them to advance his mission without his physical presence. He calms their fear by assuring them – as they live through this transition – his abiding presence and help through the Holy Spirit, and his gift of peace. The first reading illustrates an act of transition: A community of mostly Jewish-Christians and the recent gentile (non-Jew, uncircumcised) converts learn to practice their faith together. In doing so, our spiritual ancestors turned to the very gifts that Jesus had offered them: Divine guidance and personal/communal peace. Prompted by the Holy Spirit, they truly listened to each other's lived faith experiences. Eventually the early Church decided not to impose an irrelevant Jewish practice (male circumcision) on gentile Christians.

For the early disciples/Church as well as for us in 2013, embracing such moments of transition or conversion is, no doubt, challenging yet necessary. It allows our spiritual forebears and us today to remain faithful to God's great plan of salvation, to grow personally and communally, to be Christ not only for a selective group in a "ghetto" locale, but to proclaim Him as a "universal" Church for the world.

Like you, I am so grateful that our Sacred Heart of Jesus parish has been a spiritual oasis for generation after generation of Catholics who come from various corners of our planet. We – as individuals and as a community of faith – often face new challenges in this fast-paced changing world with dignity, with mutual respect and prudent adjustments. We have matured much. The Holy Spirit is with us. As we continue learning to be and proclaim the Risen Christ in 2013, we will continue to grow, and Christ's peace blooms in our heart and among us.

A sincere "thank you" to all who have contributed or pledged to support the Archdiocese's Annual Catholic Appeal! Thus far we have achieved 17% of the assessed amount ($40,157.00), or about 8% of our parish's actual goal ($87,157.00 which includes $47,000 to replace our 80 year old heating system). As previously mentioned, we exceeded our goal by 11% last year, from 65% of parishioners' participation. With your continuing kindness, we can improve to 75% or even 80% participation this year. Again, for those who can, please check your potential "Matching Gift" from your employer. Thank you for making the extra effort."

Next Sunday is Mother's Day. At all weekend Masses we will crown our heavenly Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary (more details in this bulletin). During each Mass, we also honor our earthly mothers, living and deceased. Again, "Spiritual Bouquet for Mom" envelopes are available in the front vestibule for Mass Intentions. Your donation can also be used to give flowers to all mothers at each Mass.

May the Risen Christ continue to fill you and your extended family with his divine love!
Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

"May Crowning"*

One defining aspect of being Catholic is devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, especially during the month of May. At all Masses next weekend (May 11-12) we will crown her as Queen of heaven and earth. What a honor, for who among us ever meet a queen, much less crown one?

"May Crowning" marks a new spiritual season. Mary lifts us out of the cold winter and plants our hearts in the warm/promising soil of spring. Mary not only has given us Jesus, her maternal and nurturing heart safely leads us to her Son as well. And, her heavenly love inspires our earthly mother's love for us. No wonder, we crown her on our Catholic version of Mother's Day.
