- a Community of Faith which shares in the teaching mission of Christ
- a Community of Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure serving people most in need

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

While I was meditating on today's 2nd reading, your faces and life stories peacefully emerged in my mind and heart. St. Paul's words struck a deep core inside of me, as I visualized each of you, I gently lifted you up to God: "We always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith, that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, in accord with the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ." I am deeply grateful for so many of you for having lived your faith with exemplary dignity and generosity!

At all Masses this weekend, a member of our Finance Council will share with you on what we together have accomplished in our services this past year and also on the financial condition of our parish. Please help me thank them for their dedicated services.

Today we begin our annual renewal/consideration of stewardship of treasure. What is stewardship, really? At its core, stewardship starts with God, who is infinite abundant and ever generous. Who we are and what we have is a gift from this generous God. In gratitude we dedicate a portion of God-entrusted time, talent, and finance to furthering his work here on earth. We are God's stewards. Our stewardship sharing is rooted in five basic beliefs:

1. It is a gift, to be shared with free will;
2. it is planned, with thought and resolve;
3. it is proportionate to what we have received from God;
4. it is sacrificial in that we give from our substance, not just what is left over; and
5. it is given in gratitude for the immense love God has shown us.

Next weekend, one of your fellow parishioners, Rita Brown, will share a practical way for us to live out these faith-filled convictions. Please pray for God's guidance on our discernment!

For this month of November, we invite you to write the name(s) of your dearly departed, together with a short prayer in "The Book of Remembrance" in the vestibule. We will include your prayers in our regular "Prayers of the Faithful."

Please note several events & pertinent details in this bulletin, particularly the "Appreciation Dinner" for all of you ministry volunteers, our Seniors Group's bake sale, seasonal flu, free cremation burial, etc.

May Christ's joy and peace be yours!

Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

Worship in the Flu Season

With the flu season upon us, be considerate of your neighbor in the pew. Please understand if people are reluctant to shake hands due to the flu bug or rheumatoid condition. A friendly smile or a nod still conveys the peace message nicely and does not spread the flu bug.
