Dear Parishioners and Friends of Sacred Heart,

The last Sunday in October is a nationwide day of prayer for ordained priesthood. My 20 years of being a Redemptorist priest has taught me a humble lesson: That I am fragile and a sinner, yet so undeservingly loved by the merciful God. His goodness is often shown through my family, Redemptorists, friends, parishioners, and even “strangers.” My two short years at Sacred Heart has been a tremendous blessing. Thank you for your love, smile, and continuing prayers, without which I could not have been at my best.

Our gracious God has also greatly blessed Sacred Heart this past year. At all Masses next weekend our Finance Council will present the parish’s “Annual Pastoral and Fiscal Report.” In reviewing the report, know that YOU have “incarnated” God’s outpouring love for Sacred Heart and for many transient sisters and brothers among us. I am grateful for your generous and reliable sacrifices as a part of your faith life!

This coming Friday (November 1st) is the feast of All Saints. Being saint means being holy, which is really about you and me, as affirmed by our Lord Jesus, “Be holy as your heavenly Father is holy.” All of us, from any background or walk of life, are called to holiness, to live and become a saint. This feast is a Holy Day of Obligation. Please check out the Mass schedule, along with the feast of All Souls, in this bulletin.

Thank all of you who have volunteered in various ministries at Sacred Heart. As a token of our gratitude, the parish leadership invites you to our “ANNUAL APPRECIATION DINNER,” currently scheduled for 6 p.m., Friday, November 22nd in the Redemptorist rectory. Want to see Fr. Mark in a kitchen apron and taste my secret recipe? Ok, please mark your calendar, and plan to share with one another this fun-filled moment!!

Fr. Binh Ta, C.Ss.R.

Mass Intentions for the Deceased

November is a special time to remember those who died in the state of grace yet are still in need of being purified (i.e., perfected) in their total love for God. Praying for the “living-dead” is an ancient Christian tradition, which is rooted in our noble faith called “Communion of the Saints.” The latter faith implies an enduring solidarity with one another, here today and beyond earthly life. Most of all, the tradition points to God’s abiding mercy to those who actively seek to grow into God. You and I can continue to support our departed family, friends, parishioners, neighbors, etc., by offering Masses, praying rosaries or Eucharistic adoration, visiting cemeteries, and being charitable.

To offer a Mass at Sacred Heart for them, please use the “All Souls Day Remembrance” envelopes in the front vestibule, and drop them into the Sunday Offering Basket.
